

International Colloquium
STONE MONUMENTS AND LITHIC BUILDING MATERIALS IN THE ROMAN PROVINCES:
Methodological Approaches on Provenance and Resources, Manufacturing, Supply, Use and Re-use

TULCEA, RO April 25th – 28th 2023

PROGRAM

Tuesday, April 25th 2023

9:00-9:15 REGISTRATION

9:15-9:30 Sorin Ailincăi, Cristina-Georgeta Alexandrescu

Greetings & Introduction

Raw materials: local vs imported (provenance determination, use during the Roman period)

9:30-10:00 Isabel Rodà de Llanza, Simona Perna, Diana Gorostidi

Marmora d'Hispania et ses applications en sculpture, epigraphie et en objets de l'ornementation

10:00-10:30 Cristina-Georgeta Alexandrescu, Albert Baltres, Bogdan Olariu

'Roman Stone Monuments from North Dobruja' Project. Research Questions – Objectives – Preliminary results

10:30-11:00 Oliver Livanov

The lithic material and their source in the walls of several fortresses from Dobruja

11:00-11:15 COFFEE BREAK

Stone quarrying and distribution

11:15-11:45 Elena Klenina

Stone supply to Chersonesus Taurica in the Antiquity

11:45-12:15 Montserrat Claveira Nadal

The production of funerary monuments in north-eastern Hispania. Quarries, distribution and evaluation of their stone materials results with regard to their interpretation

12:15-12:45 Zdravko Dimitrov

The limestone quarries of Marcianopolis

12:45-14:00 LUNCH BREAK

Carving the stone/ stone workshops (methodological approaches, archaeological evidence)

14:00-14:30 Sorin Nemeti, Radu Zăgreanu

Votive altars from Potaissa. Models and decorative patterns as evidence for stone workshops.

Polychromy on stone monuments carved in local stones

14:30-15:00 Ute Kelp, Anja Klöckner

On the polychromy of Treveran funerary monuments. First steps towards mapping colour traces

15:00-15:30 Robert Krickl

Detection of ancient polychromy on Roman stone artifacts: case studies from the project PolychroMon

16:00-18:00 Visit to the History Museum in Tulcea, with the lapidarium collection and the site of ancient Aegyssus.

Wednesday, April 26th 2023

Studies on Roman stone monuments and the added value of information on their material and making of (e.g. discussion of the CSIR Series concept).

9:00-9:30 Simon Barker

The city transformed: patterns of re-use as a tool for understanding late-antique urban landscapes

9:30-10:00 Florina Panait Bîrzescu
Stone table and bench supports from Histria

10:00-10:30 Andrzej Biernacki
Some remarks on the use of architectural orders in the castrum status of the Legio I Italica in Novae (Lower Moesia)

10:30-10:45 COFFEE BREAK

CLOSING CONFERENCE

10:45-11:20 Gabrielle Kremer
Beyond Corpus and Database – Research on stone monuments of the Roman provinces

11:20-12:30 Final discussions and remarks

12:30-14:00 LUNCH BREAK

14:00-18:00 Visit to Isaccea / ancient Noviodunum and to the Early Christian basilica in Niculițel.

Thursday, April 27th 2023

9:00-17:00 Visit to Capul Dolojman/ ancient Orgame – Argamum and to the medieval fortification in Enisala.

Organisers:

